Milly and Molly are friends with everyone.
All their friends are different and they all like different things.

Jack has shiny black hair
and he loves carrots.

Meg has a lovely smile
and she's crazy about apples.

Harry has the whitest teeth
and he enjoys bananas.

Sophie has soft brown ringlets
and she just loves chocolate.

Tom has blue eyes
and he gets excited about blueberries.

Poppy has the longest braids and strawberries are her favorites.

The Milly, Molly series of books have been written to promote the acceptance of diversity and sound principles for character education.

When Humphrey meets Milly and Molly's friend Beefy, his life is never the same again!

Theme: Kindness vs Bullying

"Milly, Molly is a wonderful bunch of books. A real find."

Robert Munsch: Noted author of bestselling children's books.

"The underlying morals inherent within the texts are important for children of the twenty-first century to take as their own... the language used to carry the stories is lively and exciting for young readers... the language and style is simply good literature... suitable as teaching texts in social studies or health programs anywhere in the world where difference is an integral component of a community"

Professor Dr. Sigrid Markmann: Dean of the Faculty of Literature and Linguistics - University of Osnabrück, Germany
