In a wild and grassy corner of the garden lived an extended family of guinea pigs.

Ma Guinea was mother, stepmother, auntie or special friend to all the little guinea pigs who lived there.

Ma Guinea knew all their names and stories of where their names had come from.

Milly and Molly could lie on their tummies all day long and watch the little guinea pigs nibble grass.

But, best of all, they loved to watch Ma Guinea gather the little guinea pigs together for their bedtime stories.

Her quiet words filled the little guinea pigs with warmth and wonder and made them feel special.

The Milly, Molly series of books have been written to promote the acceptance of diversity and sound principles for character education.

Behind every name there is a ‘special star’.
Theme: Building self-esteem in others.

“Milly, Molly is a wonderful bunch of books. A real find.”

Robert Munsch: Noted author of bestselling children’s books.

“The underlying morals inherent within the texts are important for children of the twenty-first century to take as their own... the language used to carry the stories is lively and exciting for young readers... the language and style is simply good literature... suitable as teaching texts in social studies or health programs anywhere in the world where difference is an integral component of a community”

Professor Dr. Sigrid Markmann: Dean of the Faculty of Literature and Linguistics - University of Osnabrück, Germany
